

Second gear is used when riding the motorcycle at higher speeds than in low gear, on comparatively level ground.

Top gear is used when riding the motorcycle at the highest speeds on level ground. Slow down and down-shift to a lower gear when cornering or when the terrain becomes rough.