

-
-
- Caution the junior rider never to ride beyond his ability and experience or faster than conditions warrant.
 - If you are not familiar with the terrain, lead the way and ride cautiously. Hidden rocks, holes or ravines could spell disaster.
 - If the QR50 is to be carried, secure it in an upright position and drain all petrol from the fuel tank and carburetor to prevent leakage during transit.