

Instruments

Checking the display screen

When the motorcycle is started, the display screen, odometer (total distance travelled) and either km/h or mp/h segments light up, depending on the prior configuration.